

Complaint form

MAKE A COMPLAINT ABOUT AN ICAEW MEMBER OR AFFILIATE

BEFORE YOU MAKE A COMPLAINT

- Please check the accountant or accountancy firm is registered with ICAEW.
- If your complaint relates to an audit, insolvency, investment business or probate matter, please refer to icaew.com/complaints before you complete this form.
- Please ensure you have copies of any relevant supporting letters and other documents. We may not be able to help you if you don't have documentary evidence to support your allegation.
- If your issue relates to a criminal matter, you should ask the police (or other relevant authority) to investigate it first. Please let us know you've reported the matter.
- Please seek legal advice straight away if you think you have a reason to make a civil claim. Do not wait until our investigation process has concluded.

USING YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We will treat your personal information in accordance with data protection legislation. We will use your information to carry out our responsibilities as a regulator and a professional body. We may, either as required by law or to carry out those responsibilities, share information about our members and firms to comply with the requirements of government departments, agencies and regulators.

The ICAEW member or firm who is the subject of the complaint will need to be shown all material relevant to the complaint against them. All correspondence between the ICAEW member or firm, the complainant and ICAEW is private and confidential, although it may be disclosed to the ICAEW member or firm's insurer, someone representing them, or an ICAEW support member. If ICAEW is asked by a government department, agency or regulator to disclose information about the ICAEW member or firm, we may share information about the complaint.

Please tick this box if you DO NOT want us to share any evidence or correspondence with the ICAEW member or firm.

Please be aware that ICAEW may not be able to act on your complaint if we cannot disclose the supporting evidence to the accountant.

If there are any specific documents you do not wish us to share with the ICAEW member or firm, please mark them clearly as such.

We may transfer your information outside the European Economic Area (EEA) eg, to one of our offices. These countries may not have similar data protection laws to the EEA, so if we do transfer your information we will take the necessary steps to ensure that your privacy rights are still protected.

If you have any questions about making a complaint, please call our helpline on +44 (0)1908 248 250. For more information about our data protection policy please go to icaew.com/dataprotection
