

Board or Committee name	ICAEW Ethics Advisory Committee
Purpose of the Board or Committee	The committee is responsible for overseeing ICAEW's role providing ethical advice and support to members, students and affiliates. ICAEW ethics advisory function responds to enquiries to ethical and anti-money laundering issues by providing high quality, free and confidential advice to members (or their representatives) through Technical Advisory Service.
Role name	Committee member (five vacancies)
Purpose of the role	To participate in committee meetings and out of meeting discussion and consultations relating to ethical matters.
What you might gain from the role	An insight into the ethics advisory function, an opportunity to support members with ethical issues and a chance to influence the development of guidance and support materials.
Attributes sought	We have space for five new committee members. We are seeking candidates with an interest in ethics. We are particularly interested in candidates with experience of corporate finance and/or tax, but this is not essential. We are also seeking a member of ICAEW Council to join this committee.
Time commitment: no of meetings per annum and length of meeting	Four meetings per year (March, June, September and December). Each meeting starts at 11:00 and usually lasts around 2 hours.
Remuneration:	This is an unpaid role. Reasonable expenses to attend meetings will be reimbursed.
Meeting location:	Virtual or Chartered Accountants' Hall, Moorgate Place, London. Reasonable adjustments to support attendance will be considered.
Term of office	From June 2023 for to June 2026
Application deadline	12 February 2023
Provisional dates for interview:	February/March 2023
Contact details for application:	Catherine.burnhope@icaew.com