

Committee vacancy role profile

Board or Committee name	Audit and Assurance Faculty Board
Purpose of the Board or Committee	The Board exists to help the Faculty achieve its objectives as outlined in its Terms of Reference – most notably to be the professional and public interest voice of ICAEW in the field of audit and assurance and to provide guidance and assistance to members of the faculty and the wider ICAEW membership.
Role name	Committee Member
Purpose of the role	Members of the Board provide high quality advice on issues of strategic importance for the faculty and for audit and assurance. Oversight of operational and technical issues is provided by the faculty's main technical committee. Support is provided by a number of other faculty technical and advisory committees, which report to that committee.
What you might gain from the role	Board members are ambassadors of and advocates for ICAEW and the faculty. Participants will be at the forefront of discussions of important topics of the day, able to share views with other members of the profession from a range of backgrounds and help influence the work of the faculty.
Attributes sought	Board members will generally be highly regarded, senior individuals with significant expertise in audit and assurance. ICAEW is however committed to a Board of diverse backgrounds, skills and experience, and the faculty seeks to ensure adequate representation from organisations of different sizes and from individuals with different specialisms. We also welcome individuals at different career stages. We would welcome applications from the UK and overseas.
Time commitment: no of meetings per annum and length of meeting	Three or four times a year for approximately two hours plus ad hoc calls on big policy issues.
Meeting location:	Currently virtual only
Term of office	From June 2021 to June 2024
Interview date/s	Early January
