

Examination Marking Opportunities for the ICAEW

ICAEW is recruiting new markers for the Advanced Level Case Study marking team.

The Case Study is the four-hour final exam taken by ACA students. It aims to test candidates' professional skills in the context of business issues, building on the knowledge and skills acquired during success at the Certificate Level and Professional Level examinations. Candidates are given 40 – 50 pages of Advance Information six weeks before the examination to 'set the scene' (who they are and the area they are working in). During the exam they must assess the four requirements given in the exam, taking into account approximately 15 pages of new information provided.

Case Study markers will generally:

- Be qualified with a CCAB body or the Chartered Institute of Taxation (CIOT), with at least one year post qualification experience and must:

- Have some experience of marking examination papers or an interest in assessment
- Be able to listen to, and diligently apply, training
- Be able to mark at one session a year at least, and devote approximately 11 consecutive days (including weekends) to marking per session
- Be able to follow a strict marking timetable
- Have access to, and ability to use a PC/laptop, the Internet and Microsoft Office in the security of your own home. All markers will be expected to mark papers online. Computer specification available on application. (On the selection day marking will be carried out on paper)

A marker selection day will be held remotely via Zoom on Sunday 5 March 2023.

If you are interested in becoming a Case Study marker and meet the criteria above, please email your CV to markers@icaew.com by Monday 20 February 2023 quoting reference CS23SD1. We will invite candidates to the selection day and will let you know if you have been shortlisted or otherwise by 24 February 2023.

The selection process will involve:

- Sunday 5 March 2023 – prospective markers training and marking of a past script
- Sunday 5 – 9 March 2023 – prospective markers marking a script at home
- Friday 10 March 2023 noon – deadline for completed marking key to be delivered to examiners

The examiners will then consider your work and may invite you to join the marking team. Markers who are invited to join the marking team, will only be guaranteed to mark for one session (either July/November 2023) to start with.
