

Nominations for service on management committee to May 2026

The East Anglian Society of Chartered Accountants is the ICAEW's local member community and is here to represent all its members in the area, at whatever stage in their career, including those who are recently qualified or working in business, public and third sectors.

Serving on the committee gives you the opportunity to participate in the management of your District Society, which is an important bridge between the local communities across East Anglia and ICAEW centrally. By doing so you can help it to identify and support key activities for members and influence how policies can be improved nationally. At the same time, you will expand your network of professional contacts. To hear more from ICAEW Chartered Accountants who volunteer please visit icaew.com

If you have an enthusiasm for new ideas and want to champion these to fellow members, then get involved by completing and returning the form overleaf. If you'd like to find out more, please contact debbie.antony@icaew.com
