

Working practices during the COVID-19 pandemic

STUDENT SURVEY

Reponses by country

Responses by organisation type

- Accountancy Firm/Practice
- Industry/Commerce/Business
- Public sector
- Charity/Not for Profit/Voluntary sector
- Other - Banking
- Other - Engineering
- Other - Financial Services

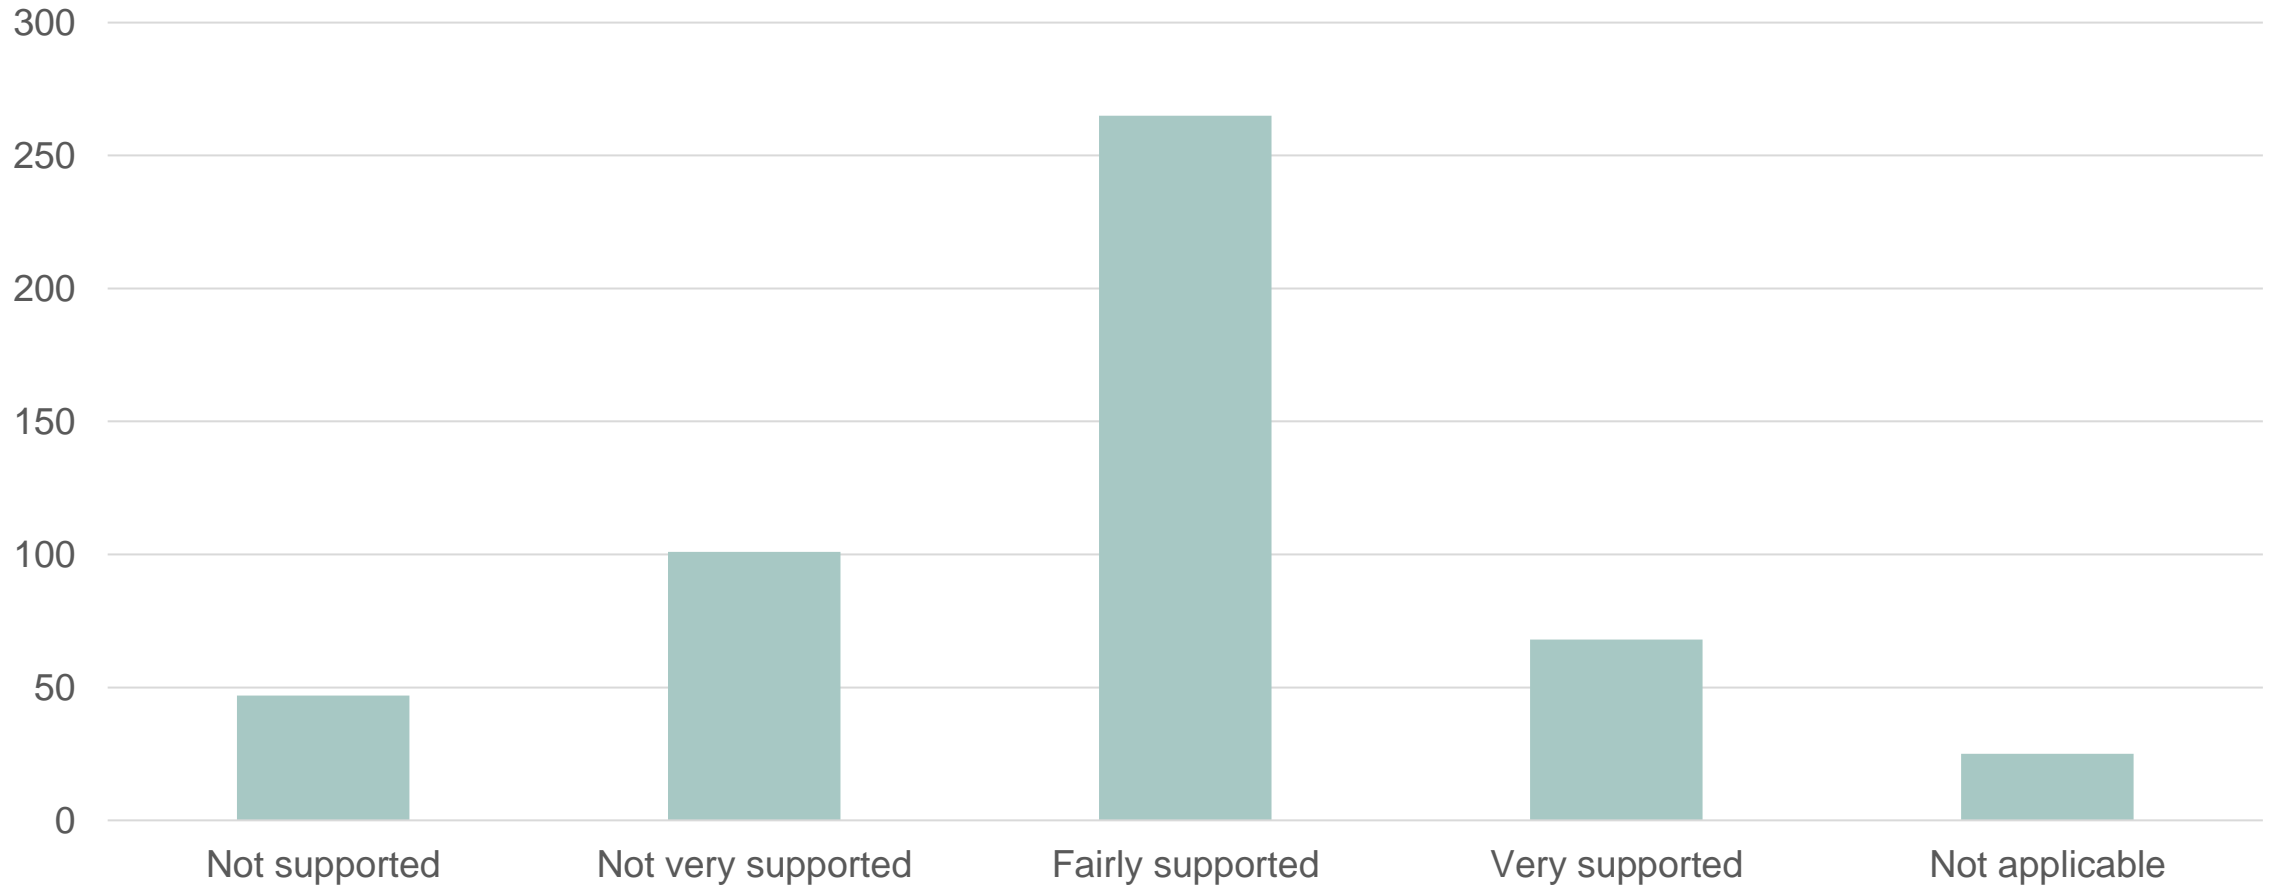

How well have you adapted to working from home? (1 being not at all, 10 being extremely well)

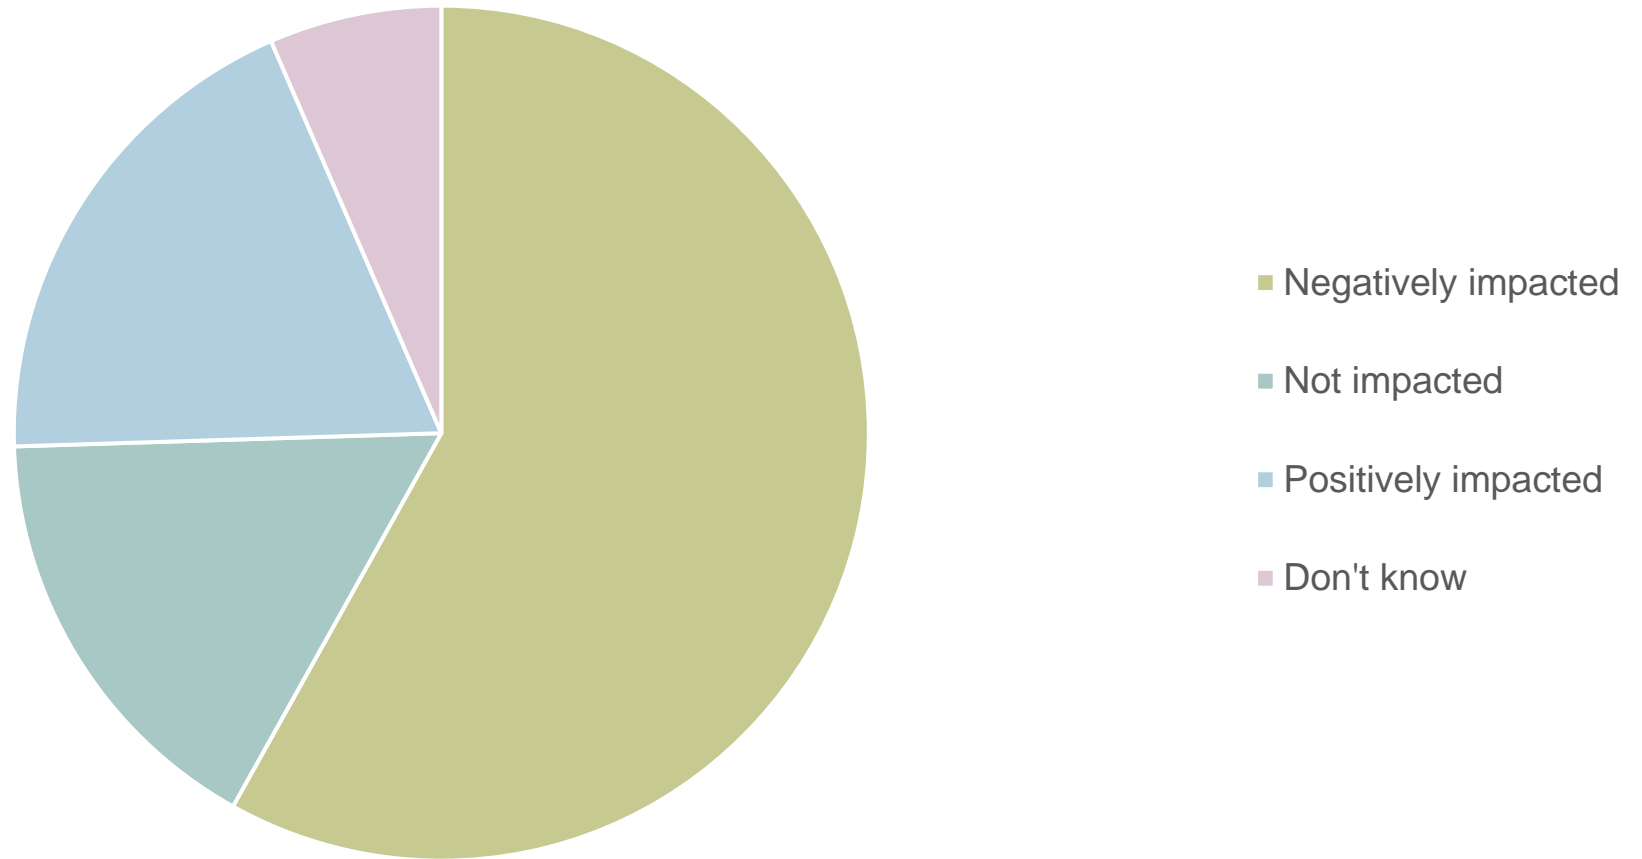

How well do you feel your employer has supported your training needs throughout the COVID-19 pandemic?

How supported by ICAEW have you felt throughout the COVID-19 pandemic?

How has the COVID-19 pandemic impacted your studies?

Students could provide more detail on how the pandemic has impacted their studies – positives

- No travel required with Remote Invigilation option
- More time to study due to not having to travel to the office
- Flexibility of studying time e.g. during lunch breaks
- Less distractions so more time to study

Students could provide more detail on how the pandemic has impacted their studies – negatives

- Exams being delayed / delay to qualifying
- Working from home and studying in the same workspace
- Online tuition rather than face to face
- Work/life balance and impact on mental health
- Increased workload and longer working hours
- Unable to learn from senior members of the team

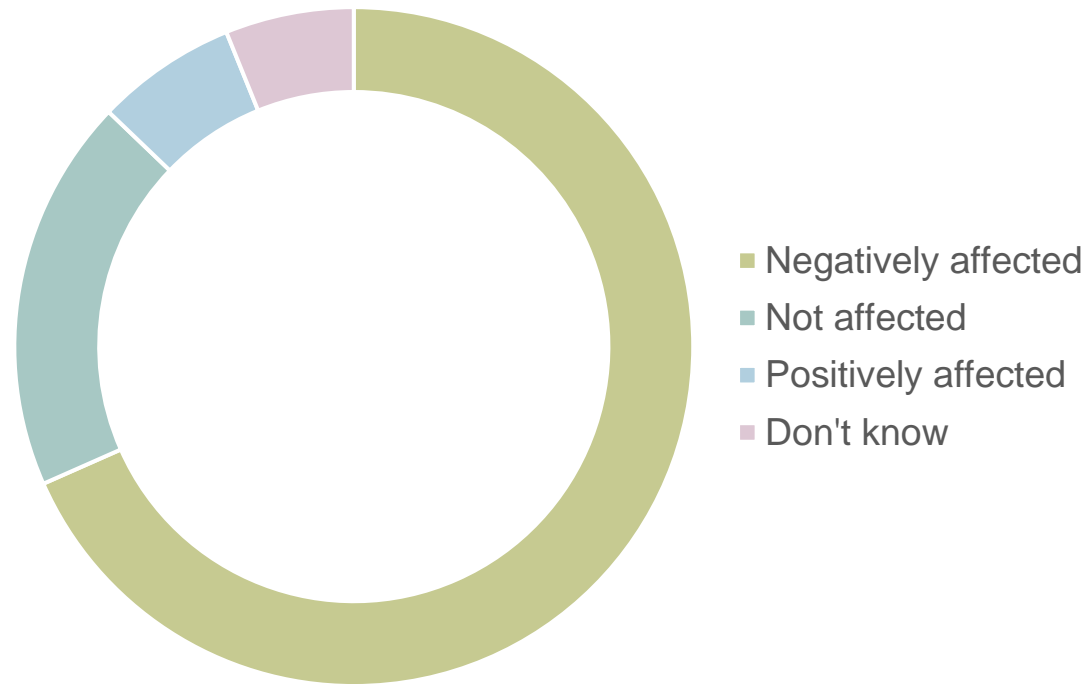

Which skills do you feel you have strengthened during the pandemic?

How happy are you with your work-life balance? (1 being the lowest, 10 being the highest)

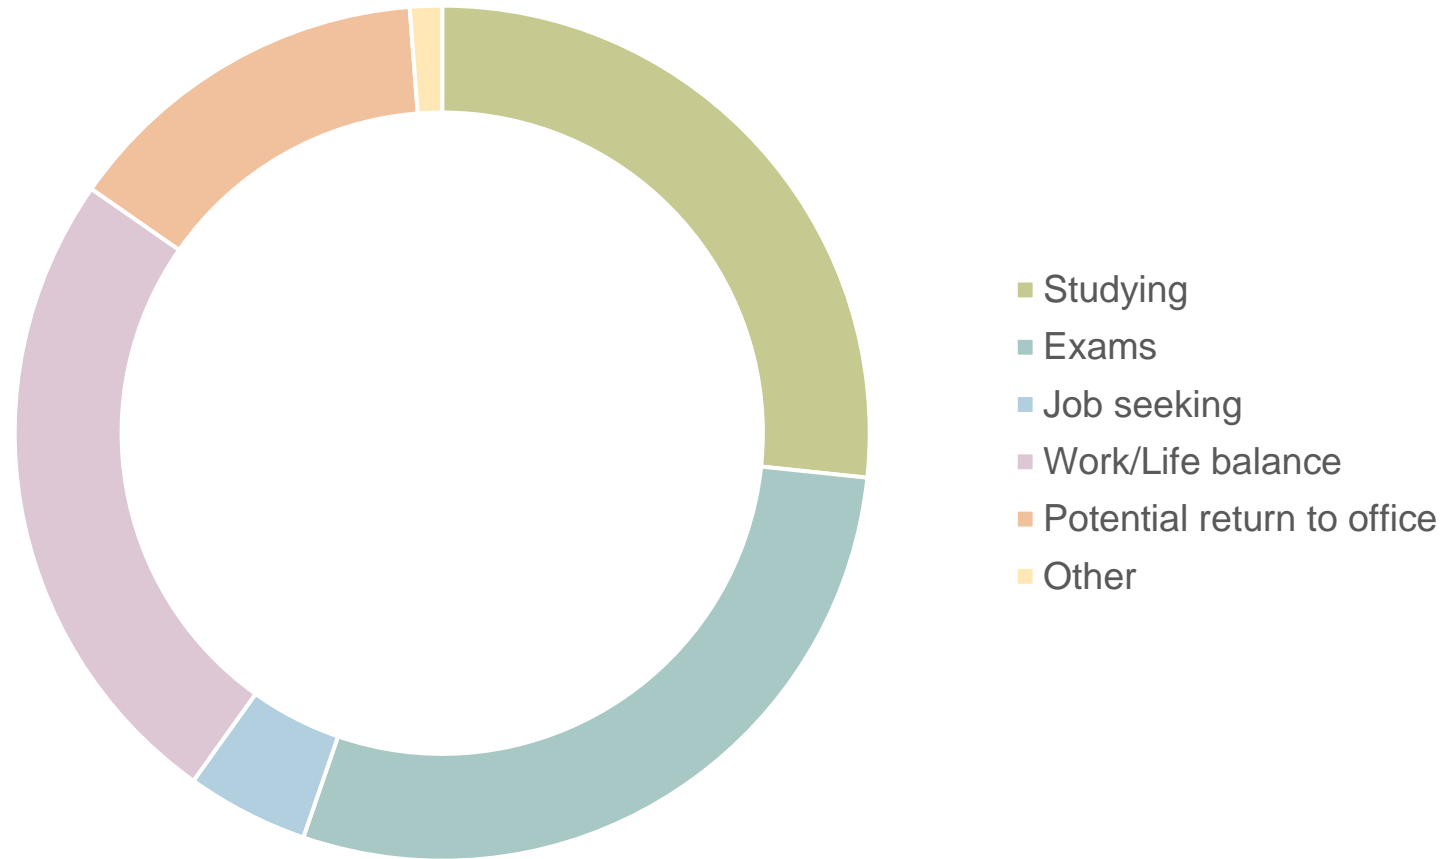

How do you feel your mental health and wellbeing has been affected by the COVID-19 pandemic?

“My employer does enough to support my mental health and wellbeing” Do you:

What have been the biggest challenges for you in 2021?

For further details about this survey, please email bds@icaew.com

icaew.com