Status

MANDATORY DECLARATION

At the point of initial registration ICAEW students are required to declare any act or default likely to bring discredit on themselves, ICAEW or the profession of accountancy, however long ago the offence or circumstances occurred. Offences or circumstances occurring following initial student registration should be declared to ICAEW as soon as is practicably possible. If you are found to have failed to disclose this information your registration may be revoked or later membership prevented or withdrawn.

Acts requiring disclosure would include (but are not limited to):

- being found guilty of (or having pleaded guilty to) any criminal offences;
- having been charged with a criminal offence which is as yet to come to trial;
- entering into an Individual Voluntary Arrangement or similar composition with creditors;
- failing to satisfy a judgement debt;
- being the subject of an adverse fining by a professional body or regulator;
- having had a disqualification order made, or having given a disqualification undertaking, under the Directors of Companies Directors Disqualification Act 1986, or similar overseas legislation; or
- having entered into bankruptcy or being a discharged bankrupt.

If any of the above statements apply to you, or you think that there are similar matters which you should declare, please attach details with your registration.

Do any of the above circumstances (or similar) apply to you? YES NO

DECLARATION

- I acknowledge that, even if I have met all of the requirements and conditions, I may be required to provide additional information, and my application may or may not be approved.
- I undertake to notify ICAEW of any disciplinary or criminal matters referred to above which arise subsequent to this application within 14 days of becoming aware of them.
- I confirm that, to the best of my knowledge and belief, the information in this application is true and correct, and faithfully reflects my experience relevant to this application.

If you have any queries or concerns about these questions, please call +44 (0)1908 248 250

I consent to my criminal conviction data being checked for entrance criteria.
