THE OBJECTS OF THE SOCIETY ARE—

To promote the acquisition of those branches of knowledge which are essential to the practice of an Accountant; to decide upon questions of professional usage or courtesy; and generally to advance the position and interests of Members of the profession.

CONSTITUTION.

The Society shall consist of three classes of Members, namely, Fellows, Associates & Honorary Members, with a class of Students attached.

ELECTION OF ASSOCIATES.

Every application for admission as an Associate of this Society must be made to the Council, and must be accompanied by a recommendation from at least two Associates.

ENTRANCE FEES AND ANNUAL SUBSCRIPTIONS.

Every Associate who shall be elected a FELLOW of the Society shall, upon such election, pay the sum of £15 15s. by way of fee upon his election as Fellow. Every person admitted as an ASSOCIATE of the Society shall, on admission, pay the sum of £5 5s. by way of entrance fee if he be practising in the City of London or within the London postal district; or the sum of £3 3s. if he be practising beyond such district: and the undermentioned YEARLY SUBSCRIPTIONS of the Society, that is to say:—FELLOWS £5 5s.: ASSOCIATES PRACTISING IN THE CITY OF LONDON, or within the London postal district, £2 2s.: ASSOCIATES PRACTISING BEYOND SUCH DISTRICT, £1 1s.; and STUDENTS, £1 1s. each.

Every candidate to be hereafter proposed for admission as an Associate shall be twenty-one years of age or upwards, and shall come within one of following conditions:—

(1.) He shall have been in actual practice on his own account, or in partnership as a public accountant, on the 11th day of January, 1872, and shall have made his application on or before the 1st day of January, 1878.

(2.) Or shall have been a clerk to a public accountant on the 11th day of January, 1872, and shall have been in actual practice on his own account, or in partnership, as a public accountant, for three years consecutively after that date, and prior to the 1st day of January, 1878.

(3.) Or shall have served under articles for a period of three years to a public accountant in actual practice.

(4.) Or shall have been employed as accountant to a corporation or public body for three years, or as a clerk to a public accountant, or firm of accountants, for a period of seven years at the least, but the employment need not have been for more than two years continuously with one and the same person or firm.

(5.) Or shall have taken a degree at one or other of the Universities of Oxford, Cambridge, Durham, London, or Dublin, and shall have served under articles for a period of two years to a public accountant or firm of accountants.

(6.) But no candidate shall be eligible for admission as an associate after the 1st day of January, 1878, until he shall have passed an examination as to his proficiency to the satisfaction of the Examiners of the Society.

(7.) Or shall conform to such conditions as the Council shall in any particular case require to be observed, but such admission shall only be made upon the written recommendation of at least three-fourths of the Council present at a Meeting specially called for the purpose.

STUDENTS.

Students shall be persons, not under 18 years of age, who are or have been pupils of Fellows or Associates of the Society, and who have the intention of becoming accountants; and such persons may continue Students until they attain the age of 20 years.

Further information can be obtained, and copies of the Rules can be had upon application to the Secretary, upon payment of 1/.
