Key benefits of membership

Current political scrutiny of audit, as well as new and emerging ISA requirements, mean that auditors are going through a period of unprecedented change. Keeping up-to-date has never been more important.

Audit and Assurance Faculty membership provides you with access to a range of high quality and timely practical resources on audit and assurance matters, ensuring you stay one step ahead of developments.

Membership also provides opportunities to get involved with our committees, panels and working groups, to network and share ideas, help shape policy and improve your visibility and profile.

Membership of the faculty is also open to non-members of the ICAEW.

JOIN US TODAY AND STAY ON TOP OF THE LATEST DEVELOPMENTS INCLUDING:

- ISA 540 (Revised) on auditing estimates;
- Proposed new standards on quality management;
- Planned changes to ISA 315; and
- Changes resulting from FRC's exposure draft of ISA (UK) 570 on going concern.

FRESH THINKING AND INSIGHTS

The faculty represents members' views and works with regulators and standard-setters to help ensure that new regulations are workable. Its thought leadership initiatives, including the Future of Audit series, are designed to:

- offer fresh thinking to enhance audit quality and to help address key challenges; and
- demonstrate the value of audit and assurance.

TECHNICAL RELEASES

The faculty's series of technical releases provide good practice guidance on a range of audit and assurance issues that are relevant to faculty members. Our technical releases covering special reports to third parties and risk management guidance are particularly popular.
